Re: Krepps v. Reiner, et al; S.D.N.Y. Docket No. 07 CV 9884 (RWS)

Dear Judge Sweet:

I am writing to request that the court approve an extension to the briefing schedule upon which the parties have agreed (email correspondence attached): Plaintiff's opposition papers to be due May 7 and Defendant's Reply papers to be due May 21.

I am also writing to request permission to submit a brief in opposition to the Insead defendants in excess of 25 pages, but no longer than 45 pages. The 25 page limit is sufficient for my opposition to the Miller motion.

The Insead defendants have effectively submitted a brief that is roughly 40 pages long, though they have remained within the letter of your Honor's rules by including 184 lines of footnotes in a miniscule font. Rather than following Insead's approach, I wanted first to seek the court's permission to submit a longer brief. Insead has objected to my request (email correspondence attached).

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Matthew Krepps".

Mr. Krepps,

We would agree - subject to the Court's consent - to the 7 day adjournment you request below, but cannot agree to any modification of Judge Sweet's Individual Practice Rules limiting opposition memoranda to 25 pages.

Very truly yours,

Evan Glassman

Do you have any objection to me:

1. Filing an opposition brief against the Insead defendnats that is up to, but not longer than, 45 pages long? (I don't need extra space for opposition to Miller).
2. Delaying the schedule for opposition and reply by 7 days: Opposition by May 7 and reply by May 21.

Thanks,

Matt
